Description

In the heart of Central London, a distinguished 250-room luxury hotel seeks a gifted Financial Accountant to be the linchpin in its grand renovation and expansion. This is an unparalleled opportunity to become part of a world-renowned hospitality brand and to shape its illustrious future.

Under the direct guidance of the esteemed Director of Finance, you will orchestrate the financial symphony of the property, meticulously crafting the statutory accounts. Your expertise will navigate the intricate realms of inter-company loans, cash flow management, and IFRS 16 compliance, as you present the financial tapestry to senior leadership and the proprietors, ensuring the continued prosperity of this opulent establishment.

Responsibilities

- Ownership Reporting – P&L, Cashflow and other ad hoc reporting requests.
- Lender reporting and covenant reporting.
- Statutory reporting and responsibility of the stat accounts.
- Year-end audit requirements, ensuring compliance throughout the internal audit and being lead liaison for the external audit.
- Balance sheet reconciliations and consolidation.
- Play a major role in the budgeting process.

Requirements

The successful candidate will be a Qualified Accountant (ACCA/CIMA/ACA) with at least 5 years' accounting experience. Ideal candidates will have a background in audit or even some industry exposure already, experience working with large hospitality clients a plus. Proficiency in Opera and SUN systems, along with advanced Excel skills, is essential. We're looking for a hands-on, adaptable individual who can thrive in a fast-paced environment and effectively communicate with various departments.

Job Benefits

In return for your hard work, the luxury hotel offers you a competitive salary, a 10% bonus, private health insurance, 23 days paid holiday, fantastic colleague rates in group hotels worldwide for friends & family, and a very long list of impressive perks.
